

ACTOR

GOLDA ROSHEUVEL'S

FAVOURITE INDEPENDENT BUSINESSES

“Small businesses bring so much diversity to the High Street and are an important part of my life, not least as the proud co-owner of Imma The Bakery. I am truly inspired by the energy and creativity of small businesses in the UK and here are some of my favourites.” Golda Rosheuvel

1

Photo credit: Harriet Langford

naifs

This family-run, vegan bistro has a unique charm, where the warm and welcoming setting makes for a special dining experience.

56 Goldsmith Rd, London SE15 5TN

“I am thrilled to be supporting the American Express Shop Small™ campaign.”

“A delicious set meal is always a great way to enjoy the variety of flavours on offer.”

2

Walworth Garden

Is absolutely lovely! It makes a positive impact in the community by supporting those with barriers to employment. Nurturing the next generation in gardening is such a thoughtful initiative and the tranquil setting in South London makes it an even more inviting place for all the family.

206 Manor Place, London SE17 3BN

“I am always truly inspired by the incredible energy and creativity that small and independent businesses create in the UK.”

3

Ceramica Blue

Ceramica Blue is a wonderful place! It is focused on creating practical yet charming items that add character to any table and kitchen.

10 Blenheim Crescent, London W11 1NN

4

Pipoca Vegan

Pipoca embodies sustainable living! Offering low-impact, vegan and organic food products, along with eco-friendly toiletries and cleaning supplies, it has a strong commitment to both health and the environment. The concept of bringing your own container and purchasing only what you need is a great way to reduce waste and promote mindful consumption.

224a Brixton Road, London SW9 6AH

“The concept of bringing your own container and purchasing only what you need is a great way to reduce waste and promote mindful consumption.”

5

The Common Press

The Common Press CIC is an incredibly important and vibrant space in London! As the first consciously queer intersectional bookshop, it not only provides access to diverse literature but also serves as a safe haven for the LGBTQIA+ community. Creating a welcoming environment where people can connect, share experiences, and find representation in literature is invaluable.

118 Bethnal Green Road, London E2 6DG

“I love to celebrate and support independent British creativity, whether that is in art, fashion, design, music, corner stores or brilliant local restaurants.”

6

The Store X

The Store X, based in London's 180 The Strand, merges fashion, art and design and stocks some of my favourite British brands including SS Daley and Wales Bonner.

180 Strand, Temple, London WC2R 1EA

7

TOAD Bakery

You've discovered a gem in Camberwell! There's something truly special about an independent bakery, especially one that draws such a crowd. The quality of the bread is exceptional, and the line is out the door and down the street. Go early!!

44 Peckham Road, London SE5 8PX

8

Blue Elephant Theatre

The Blue Elephant Theatre is an exciting hub for creativity and artistic expression! An eclectic programme that ranges from physical and dance theatre to new writing and revamped classics. Offering a diverse experience for audiences, it's great to see a venue that embraces new work while also honouring traditional pieces.

59A Bethwin Road, London SE5 0XT

"The quality of the bread is exceptional, and the line is out the door and down the street. Go early!!"

"The Blue Elephant Theatre is an exciting hub for creativity and artistic expression!"

9

Anonymous Coffee

The best coffee roasters near our bakery, no one puts the love and work on their beans like these guys.

Unit 16 Manor Farm, Peppard Common, Rotherfield Peppard, Henley-on-Thames RG9 5LA

10

Blue Tin Produce

All that you can dream of - a farm, a beautiful venue, a coffee, and a fantastic store where they sell their own produce. They have helped us make our Imma bread known in the community.

Keepers Cottage, Garsons Farm, Ipsden OX10 6QU