WILD OPEN SPACES

Jet off to a wild destination without sacrificing luxury at these memorable lodges and ranches.

BY ALINA DIZIK, DEPARTURES

Whether you're seeking a distinctive outdoor experience or simply want to get off the grid closer to home, some of the world's top wilderness lodges and ranches are waiting to impress. Discover blow-your-mind amenities while experiencing the best of Mother Nature as we round up some of our favorite places to get lost in majestic splendor.

MASHPI LODGE, PACTO, ECUADOR

FINE HOTELS & RESORTS

This exclusive wilderness retreat inside Ecuador's beloved cloud forest gives guests a rare close-up to one of the most biodiverse spots in the world. With just 24 rooms tucked into the jungle landscape a four-hour drive from Quito, the hotel's staff of knowledgeable scientists proffer information on the hundreds of local species, while chefs at the restaurant serve delicious local dishes like fish grilled in banana leaves. But it's the Dragonfly, Mashpi's new open-air gondola that floats above the cloud forest for 1.2 miles, that leaves visitors breathless.

THE LODGE & SPA AT BRUSH CREEK RANCH, SARATOGA, WYOMING

FINE HOTELS & RESORTS

Escape from the office to the American West at this over-the-top dude ranch. Tap into an all-inclusive experience across a 30,000-acre cattle ranch that can include anything from fly fishing to horseback riding to guided ranger tours. While away an afternoon unwinding from adventure with a river stone massage, cowboy facial, or a simple soak in the outdoor hot tub. Situated less than four hours from Denver, Brush Creek Ranch is close enough to return to again and again, even if only for a long weekend of bucolic bliss.

Shown below

CARMEL VALLEY RANCH, CARMEL, CALIFORNIA

FINE HOTELS & RESORTS

Spread across 500 acres, this Northern California ranch offers plenty to explore. Families can try the Bee Happy Experience, where suited-up guests get a hands-on introduction to the beekeeping that takes place on-site. Golf lovers, meanwhile, can spend the afternoon on the ranch's 18-hole championship course. If you're taking a trip for two, book the ranch's newest Vineyard Oak Suites, which grant a lucky few outdoor stone-soaking tubs, and indoor-outdoor fireplaces for intimate evenings in.

MEGHAULI SERAI, A TAJ SAFARI LODGE, MEGHAULI, NEPAL

THE HOTEL COLLECTION

Overlooking Chitwan National Park, this 30-room jungle lodge comes complete with an infinity pool and gourmet breakfasts. Meet the park's famous one-horned rhinoceros and gharial crocodile with sightings right from the property. Kids in tow? They'll get a custom survival kit, learn how to make a fire, or pitch a tent. The whole family will bond in a major way as everyone wades into the shallow Rapti River to give the resident elephant, Anjali Kali, a bath.

Shown above

BLANKET BAY, GLENORCHY, NEW ZEALAND

FINE HOTELS & RESORTS

Set among the panoramic vistas of the Southern Alps, this jaw-dropping lodge is a paradise for serious adventurers. Hike along glaciated lakes deep within mountain passes, jet-boat in a UNESCO World Heritage Site national park, or bungee jump (or just watch!) in the adventure capital of nearby Queenstown. After days of exploring, kick back in the lodge's expansive lakefront guest rooms and swim outdoors in the heated lap pool. Don't leave without spending an evening in the Wine Cave, where some of the country's best vintages are paired with courses by the award-winning resident chef.

BY JACKIE COOPERMAN, DEPARTURES

 Park Hotel Vitznau, Vitznau, Switzerland
— Fine Hotels & Resorts

 Borgo Egnazia, Puglia, Italy
— Fine Hotels & Resorts

 Brenners Park-Hotel & Spa, Oetker Collection, Baden-Baden, Germany
— Fine Hotels & Resorts

Park Hotel Vitznau is your every dream of a Swiss spa come true, with its views of the crystalline Lake Lucerne and impeccable facilities: a Finnish sauna, biosauna, solarium, tepidarium, an ice grotto, indoor and outdoor whirlpools, and a special room for foot baths. There's also a 71-foot-long outdoor pool and an aquarium with 30 species of fish. Vitznau La Prairie treatments bring serious Swiss attention to detail and major results. Among the best is the 90-minute Cellular Swiss Ice Crystal Age-Defying Facial, in which therapists massage the eyes and face with clear and rose quartz crystals, and the three-hour Swiss Bliss Treatment, which includes the application of La Prairie's Skin Caviar cream to both face and body.

At 20,000 square feet and illuminated by hundreds of candles, Borgo Egnazia's Vair Spa feels like a world of its own. Mixing ancient and modern influences, Vair (which means "true" in the local Pugliese dialect) includes Roman baths, a flotation tank filled with water and salt drawn from nearby beaches, a sauna, and Turkish baths. Among the most innovative treatments, the Spirt course offers a two-hour experience that begins with a washing ritual on stone beds using rosemary-and-lavender-scented water, and finishes with a mud and ice massage. For a more intense experience, Vair has added an Iyengar yoga retreat, where guests eat just two meals a day in preparation for a 16-hour fast, take yoga classes, and participate in a Spirt purification treatment.

The House of Wellbeing at Villa Stéphanie, set in a private park adjacent to Brenners Park-Hotel & Spa in Baden-Baden, Germany, takes a distinctly ambitious approach with dozens of services for beauty, detoxification, nutrition, emotional balance, and even medical care. Visitors can lounge in the hammam or work out in a kickboxing class, and recover with an hour-long Shiatsu massage. For a restorative option, the 60-minute Sisley Phyto-Aromatique Facial provides deep massage along with serums containing plant extracts for skin elasticity and protection, lavender and marjoram to calm, and vitamins to soften and hydrate.

A game-changer when it opened on a private Turks and Caicos island, COMO Shambhala Retreat at COMO Parrot Cay brings an Asian sensibility to the Caribbean. With nine treatment rooms spread across 12,000 square feet, the spa offers everything from Thai massages to Ayurvedic weight-loss plans, with a program led by resident practitioner

Dr. Parth Mahajan, an expert in stress management and a devotee of yogic science. For guests wanting pure pampering, the two-hour COMO Shambhala Bath includes dry brushing followed by an application of shea butter, almond-, coconut-, and macadamia-nut oils, and concludes with an invigorating bath and a relaxing massage.

Suitably grand for its majestic setting, the 30,000-square-foot Spa Guerlain at Waldorf Astoria Trianon Palace - Versailles has 14 treatment suites, multiple steam rooms, two fitness centers, a sun deck, a 2,100-square-foot heated indoor pool, and anti-aging treatments worthy of Marie Antoinette. The hour-long Orchidée Impériale Black Treatment uses Guerlain's patented Blackimmune™ technology to boost the keratinocytes and Langerhans cells, which fight epidermal damage. Traditional ingredients play an important role here, as well. The 90-minute Honey Repair Treatment features microdermabrasion, a purifying massage, and the application of Abeille Royale Serum, formulated from pure Ouessant Black Bee Honey and Guerlain-exclusive Royal Jelly.

Sometimes the best therapy is a good night's sleep, and the Maldives' Six Senses Spa Laamu delivers it with its two-hour Sleep Well Journey. Beginning with guided meditation and breathing exercises, the sleep-focused experience continues with a facial massage to stimulate the pineal gland, followed by an Ayurvedic nasal oil containing more than two dozen herb and flower essences said to stimulate the nervous system. Overlooking the Indian Ocean, the spa's airy treatment "nests" provide a supremely relaxing setting for the 24K Gold Age-Defying Facial, which uses Indian jasmine flowers to encourage cell renewal and promote collagen creation, as well as 24K gold to enhance skin vitality.

Befitting its cosmopolitan Miami Beach location, The Spa at The Setai by THÉMAË mixes French sophistication with Japanese aesthetics and traditions. Priding itself on providing guests with a cocooning experience, the spa is highly exclusive, with just four treatment suites, all of which overlook the hotel's three pools and the ocean. Each is decked out with double beds, shower, steam room, and terrazzo soaking tub. Of special note is the decadent Setai Ceremony, which combines a relaxing, deep back massage with an anti-aging facial, detoxifying tea-leaf cleansing mask, collagen mask, acupuncture, and a body-brush massage. This being Miami, the treatment is completed with an application of gold dust.

SOME OF THE WORLD'S FINEST RESTAURANTS RESIDE WITHIN THE WALLS OF OUR HOTELS AND RESORTS. LIKE A GREAT NOVEL THAT SLOWLY REVEALS ITS PLOT, EACH HAS A SIGNATURE DISH THAT HIGHLIGHTS THE MENU—AND HAS A FANTASTIC STORY TO TELL.

BY CATHERINE DE ORIO, DEPARTURES

Belmond Le Manoir aux Quat'Saisons
Oxford, London, England
Fine Hotels & Resorts

Signature (shown above): Assiette Anne-Marie

A tribute to Chef Raymond Blanc's head gardener, the namesake dish has been served for more than three (two-Michelin-starred) decades. Emphasizing the values instilled in him from an early age by his parents—to respect the land and the seasons—the vegetable medley (such as, courgettes, morels, white asparagus) celebrates the garden's seasonal standouts.

Waldorf Astoria Beverly Hills
Beverly Hills, California
Fine Hotels & Resorts

JEAN-GEORGES BEVERLY HILLS
Signature: Avocado Carpaccio Pizza

To match the West Coast's "well-thy" vibe, pizza gets a fresh facelift here. Coal-fire-cooked crust with textural variations of crispiness and chew is crowned with a verdant rosette of paper-thin avocado slices punctuated with jalapeños, cilantro, and French sea salt. Like L.A. itself, the dish is effortlessly chic.

11 Howard
New York, New York
The Hotel Collection

LE COUCOU
Signature: Ris de Veau à la Tomate

Warned that diners won't eat sweetbreads, Chef Daniel Rose defied naysayers with his decadent creation—in which a third of guests now indulge nightly. Sautéed to tender perfection, a generous lobe bathes in a luxuriously silky sauce of simple ingredients: tomatoes or mushrooms (depending on the season), shallots, tarragon, vermouth, white wine, and cream...lots of cream. Even if you're not a sweetbreads eater, you'll regret missing this version.

Meadowood Napa Valley
Napa Valley, California
Fine Hotels & Resorts

THE RESTAURANT AT MEADOWOOD
Signature: Having no signature

The menu plays out like a jazz composition, improvised to the rhythmic, seasonal cycle of the resort's garden-grown ingredients. Spontaneous creativity is the unifying theme (think okra-seed caviar)—with three-Michelin-star results. Forgo expectation and immerse yourself in a tasting experience that is anything but one note.

Saxon Hotel, Villas and Spa
Johannesburg,
South Africa
Fine Hotels & Resorts

GREI

Ostrich, Red Cabbage, Sorrel

Think pink! Inspired by South Africa's abundance of exceptional game meat, the subtle sweetness of delicately brined, goji berry-laced tartare complements a garnish of creamy mayonnaise and delicate shards of biltong (a regional take on beef jerky). Charcoal wafers provide a stunning contrast to the crimson sorrel, pickled red cabbage, and hibiscus powder. Primal, meet pretty.

Grand Hôtel
Stockholm,
Sweden
Fine Hotels & Resorts

VERANDA

Signature:
Wallenbergare

Named after the forefather of the largest industrial family in Sweden, this is a cultural classic. Essentially a burger, the addition of egg yolks and cream to the finely minced veal elevates it to a luxurious Swedish delicacy. Say bye-bye to boring beef and välkommen to veal.

The PuLi Hotel and Spa
Shanghai,
China
Fine Hotels & Resorts

PHÉNIX EATERY & BAR

Signature:
Whole Duck Neck Sausage

Designed to awe customers, this dish has them literally rising to the occasion for a bird's-eye view of the arresting arrangement. The duck neck—with the head still attached!—is stuffed with a seasoned blend of duck leg, pork belly, and foie gras, spiked with pastis, then caramelized to glassy perfection. Approach the experience head-on.

Winter Wonderlands

Alpina Dolomites, Gardena Health Lodge & Spa, Alpe di Siusi, Italy

FINE HOTELS & RESORTS

Classic or skating? Pace and style choices for cross-country skiing are up to you in the Alpe di Siusi section of the Dolomiti Superski circuit. Just beyond the threshold of the 60-room Alpina Dolomites awaits the Gardena Health Lodge & Spa, equipped with more than 37 miles of well-groomed tracks. Snowshoe hikers and downhill skiers can also take advantage of the 84 lifts in the Alpe di Siusi-Val Gardena ski district and 460 lifts within the Superski circuit. At the end of a thigh-searing day, gather around the modern outdoor firepit at the rooftop Mountain Lounge & Bar or savor an après-ski Cohiba in the lodge's cigar lounge.

Hotel Tannenhof, St. Anton am Arlberg, Austria

THE HOTEL COLLECTION

If the term “high-Alpine descent” is an exhilarating, interest-piquing proposition, book one of the seven suites at Hotel Tannenhof. Towering above St. Anton am Arlberg, the hotel encourages guests to arrive by helicopter, then head directly to the outdoor sauna. With snow-capped craggy peaks in clear view, you'll want to commence your route augenblicklich. Guided hikes are rewarded with fine-dining evenings. Tap into the 400-bottle in-house wine list, and raise a glass to your accomplishments.

Amangani, Jackson Hole, Wyoming

FINE HOTELS & RESORTS

Take in the majesty of the Grand Tetons and the Snake River Range while sitting atop a private mountain. The all-suite Amangani is a 20-minute drive from Snow King Mountain, which locals say is the steepest-grade north-facing race course in the United States. Drop into fresh powder while heli-skiing, grab the reins during dog sledding, or hold on to the snowmobiling guide's waist; any option ensures those goggles will be dusted with snowflakes by the end of the day.

Fairmont Tremblant, Québec, Canada

FINE HOTELS & RESORTS

The Fairmont Tremblant features the best ski-in/ski-out access of the mountain-resort village, period. Its proximity to one of the bunny slopes, which converts to a tubing park in the evenings, is particularly popular for families, while the fast-track access attracts a more advanced downhill lover. Unwind at the hotel's Moment Spa with the Warm and Cold Basalt Stone Massage, which uses alternating temperatures of river rocks to release any deep muscle tension.

Giardino Mountain, St. Moritz, Switzerland

THE HOTEL COLLECTION

There's no shortage of trails for any level of snow seeker in the high-elevation Valley Engadine in the Swiss Alps. Looking for an alternative? Open-air rinks offer curling and slightly lesser-known Bavarian games, while the nearby town of Madulain grooms an ice way: a frozen thoroughfare that's skated instead of walked. Don't depart without grabbing dinner at the two-Michelin-starred Ecco St. Moritz, set inside the 78-room hotel.

The Westin Riverfront Resort & Spa, Vail Valley, Colorado

FINE HOTELS & RESORTS

While visiting the Vail Valley, revel in such pursuits as dog sledding, snowmobile tours that end in breathless views of the Continental Divide, and, of course, skiing or snowboarding at Beaver Creek or Vail Village. Overlooking Beaver Creek Mountain and the Eagle River, the Westin Riverfront Resort & Spa puts as much emphasis on memorable outdoor diversions as schussing. And don't miss the family-friendly sleigh-ride dinners with sparkling snow as your backdrop.

Lake Placid Lodge, Lake Placid, New York

FINE HOTELS & RESORTS

Regardless of the amount of snow on the ground, Lake Placid Lodge hosts a nightly outdoor bonfire, the perfect spot to swap adventure stories. There's also ice fishing for trout on nearby Saranac Lake, and racing down one of America's only Olympic bobsled tracks—with a professional bobsled driver and brakeman to keep you safe. When you're not exploring the region on foot, ski, snowshoe, or skate, retreat to the comfort of this 30-room Craftsman-style fishing camp, originally built as a private summer residence for Gilded Age A-listers like the Vanderbilts, the Guggenheims, and the Roosevelts. If only these walls could talk.

MODERN

WALDORF ASTORIA BEVERLY HILLS
FINE HOTELS & RESORTS

THE BEVERLY HILLS HOTEL
FINE HOTELS & RESORTS

We love the contrast between time-honored classics and bold newcomers found in big metropolises. Here, we explore how that juxtaposition plays out in two properties—one an established icon, the other a newer addition to the cityscape—in some of the world's most visited cities. From their unique characteristics to surprising similarities, discover the design details that make each hotel a landmark of its own.

BY SAMANTHA BROOKS, DEPARTURES

BEVERLY HILLS

It's impossible to see all of Los Angeles in a single trip—all 466 sprawling square miles of it—but it's difficult to miss The Beverly Hills Hotel. A stunning pink palace built in 1912, the 12-acre property on Sunset Boulevard continues to command attention in the heart of the city. Even after its latest three-year renovation, notable elements, like the Martinique banana leaf hallway wallpaper, the deep-green leather booths, and the dark wood of the Polo Lounge, remain just as glamorous as architect Paul Williams' original 1949 design. A total of 210 guest accommodations, including 23 bungalows, ramble across the property, showcasing a neutral palette of cream and taupe shades mixed with rich walnut, parchment, and leather. When the property emerged from its renewal in 2015, careful preservation of its Mission Revival-style architecture blended with Old Hollywood flash ensured it kept its status as the first historic landmark in Beverly Hills.

A clever complement to this longstanding property lies but two miles away at one of the city's other central intersections at Wilshire and Santa Monica Boulevard. Designed by Gensler to mimic the curve of this prime corner, the Waldorf Astoria Beverly Hills opened in 2017 and immediately charmed locals and guests alike with its streamlined architecture and unmatched views of the city. The 12th-floor rooftop bar and restaurant offers the best vantage point from which to gaze at the boulevard and the area's impressive mansions. On the other side of the rooftop and exclusively for hotel guests, is the pool, complete with fully-outfitted cabanas. Interiors at the property are decidedly ornate, in line with designer Pierre Yves Rochon's signature aesthetic. The light stone, gold accents, pale wood, and plush carpets all nod to classic luxury, while the latest technology, including in-room iPads, keep the experience decidedly contemporary.

CLASSICS

PALACE HOTEL TOKYO
FINE HOTELS & RESORTS

TOKYO

PARK HYATT TOKYO
FINE HOTELS & RESORTS

THE MODERN PARK HYATT TOKYO BECAME AN INSTANT LANDMARK AFTER ITS STARRING ROLE IN SOFIA COPPOLA'S FILM LOST IN TRANSLATION.

In a country known for understated elegance, it's worth noting how Japan's newer hotels balance tradition with everything futuristic. Palace Hotel Tokyo opened in 2012 across from the Imperial Palace Gardens on a site previously held by two hotels since 1947. Architectural firm Mitsubishi Jisho Sekkei gave the 23-story structure an asymmetrical shape that maximizes views from every angle, while the interiors feature warm tones and decadent materials such as hand-tufted rugs, 300-thread count bedspreads, silky throw pillows, and sleek, open-style bathrooms. Public spaces maximize the garden views with double-height floor-to-ceiling windows and complementary dark wood and shades of fresh grass, resulting in the perfect mix of modern design and the site's history.

The modern Park Hyatt Tokyo became an instant landmark after its starring role in Sofia Coppola's film Lost in Translation, from the skyline views from the rooftop bar and pool to the minimal guest rooms with crisp white linens and marble bathrooms. The hotel, in fact, precedes the Palace Hotel Tokyo, debuting in 1994, but is decidedly forward-thinking in style. Architect Kenzo Tange created the 770-foot structure as a trio of pyramidal towers rising 41, 47, and 52 stories tall, respectively, with the Park Hyatt taking residence on the highest 14 floors of all three. Prime space at the top of each is occupied by a bamboo garden on the 41st floor, a lap pool on the 47th floor, and the New York Grill restaurant on the 52nd. Hong Kong-based interior designer John Morford outfitted the interiors with minimal furnishings, reminiscent of a private home, giving the stunning art collection center stage. Look for standout pieces such as the handmade Japanese mask from local artist Mieko Yuki anchoring the hotel's entry, works by 1960s Britpop painter/sculptor Antony Donaldson, and the more subdued paintings of Yoshitaka Echizenya, seen throughout the library and guest rooms.

A TRADITIONAL BEDOUIN STYLE THAT COULD HAVE BEEN LIFTED STRAIGHT OUT OF LAWRENCE OF ARABIA.

For a city that wasn't developed until 1966 when oil was first discovered there, it's difficult to define an architectural "classic style." If one exists, it would be the desert oasis that is the Al Maha, a Luxury Collection Desert Resort and Spa. Located approximately 45 minutes outside of Dubai, the property debuted in 1999 with a traditional Bedouin style that could have been lifted straight out of Lawrence of Arabia. Authentic and appropriate for its remote landscape, the property contrasts starkly with the city's sky-scraping palaces—the hotel's 42 suites are spread out on a single level—and holds its own with more than 2,000 regional artifacts comprising the largest private art collection in the Middle East. And while its local art and furnishings are surely on display to be appreciated, the true scene-stealer here is the surrounding wildlife sanctuary with its resident indigenous mammals, reptiles, birds, and the rare Arabian oryx.

In contrast, in that same pre-millennium year, the Burj Al Arab Jumeirah was part of the new wave of spectacular hotels that would furnish the sky in the years to come. Standing more than 1,000 feet tall, the sail-shaped hotel was among the first to be constructed on one of the region's man-made islands, wowing guests with its 202 spacious rooms that start at a whopping 1,800 square feet. Its nearly 20,000 square feet of gold leaf, 500,000 square feet of glass windows, 10 million blue and gold mosaic tiles that line the Terrace's pool, and 30 different types of Statuario marble continue to stun and awe guests decades on.

VIBRANT PATTERNS, SWIRLS OF PSYCHEDELIC HUES, AND BOHEMIAN TOUCHES

When the Savoy opened its doors in 1889, it was the first high-end hotel in England, complete with unheard-of amenities, such as electric lights and elevators. Today, the historic property continues to dazzle with its classic glamour and English charms. Entering through the ornate lobby lounge, visitors encounter the American Bar, a stalwart since the hotel's opening, featuring nail-head bar stools and navy leather club chairs. Rooms are pleasantly outfitted in subdued furnishings of Art Deco or Edwardian influences, but the highlight is in what you don't see. Many of the suites feature mattresses from Savoir, the century-old company that has been providing the property's mattresses since 1905. (The brand now sells the same handmade mattresses for as much as $175,000 a piece.)

An eccentric example of how English design has evolved over the years, the Ham Yard Hotel opened in 2014 with 91 rooms and 24 apartments designed by acclaimed British designers/hoteliars Tim and Kit Kemp, whose signature style is an eclectic mix of color and pattern (think graphic cushions, Indian carvings, and floral padded headboards). The Kems give visitors a cheeky wink in public spaces: ribbed glass and alabaster chandeliers from India hang in the library, and a custom monolithic bronze sculpture by Tony Cragg sits in the courtyard entrance. Meanwhile, guest amenities, such as the 1950s four-lane bowling alley imported from Texas and the 190-seat theater are decorated with vibrant colors, energizing the thriving retreat that breezily reflects the atmosphere of Soho.

Emirates One&Only, Wolgan Valley, Australia

Fine Hotels & Resorts

Set on a 7,000-acre preserve, all of the rooms at this spectacular resort are freestanding villas with views of the Australian Bush and the Greater Blue Mountains. You don’t need to go hiking or horseback riding to get close to nature here, so whether you’re in your pool or stretched out by a grand stone fireplace, keep your eyes out for wallabies, wombats, kangaroos, parrots, and wallaroos. (That said, we recommend not skipping the campfire-lit stargazing excursions offered by the resort for a unique experience of the pure night sky, free from light pollution.)

ROOMS WITH A VIEW

Capella Singapore, Sentosa Island, Singapore

Fine Hotels & Resorts

Conrad Koh Samui, Koh Samui, Thailand

Fine Hotels & Resorts

Book a room with its own private infinity plunge pool terraced into the hillside, and you can admire the Gulf of Thailand and spectacular rainforest greenery while enjoying Thai iced tea. Sure, snorkeling or taking a Thai boxing class sounds like fun, but we suspect it will be hard to tear yourself away from your own private pool.

The Peninsula Hong Kong, Hong Kong, China

Fine Hotels & Resorts

Choose the Peninsula Suite to look out over the lights of the famous city skyline from the Kowloon side of Victoria Harbour. After dark, the iconic skyscrapers light up the night sky. Keep an eye out for the uniquely shaped Hong Kong Cultural Centre and Hong Kong Space Museum, as well as the iconic old Clock Tower.

Inn by the Sea, Cape Elizabeth, Maine

The Hotel Collection

Book a one- or two-bedroom beach suite at this 61-room luxury inn on the craggy coastline of southern Maine, and you'll get views of the surf crashing on mile-long Crescent Beach. Decks look out onto the waves while gas-burning fireplaces keep you cozy and warm. Or choose a spa suite where you can watch the lobster boats bring in their catch as you dine on fresh, local specialty lobster rolls, lobster tacos, or lobster gnocchi.

NIZUC Resort and Spa, Cancun, Mexico

Fine Hotels & Resorts

There are 274 rooms in the mangroves along the Caribbean coast, but sea dogs looking for shore views should book one of the adults-only Ocean Suites, all of which have terraces complete with day beds. Order a bottle of the NIZUC house wine and listen to the foamy waves hit the sand as you unwind.

Casa San Agustín, Cartagena, Colombia

Fine Hotels & Resorts

Set within this intimate colonial boutique hotel, the Suite del Virrey is graced with terraces that overlook the city's iconic tiled rooftops and cobblestone-lined streets, as well as an outdoor whirlpool tub, lounge chairs, and an al fresco dining space. Snack on arepas as you look for city landmarks like the domed cupola of the cathedral, the 16th-century fortified walls, and the University of Cartagena. For a less decadent room choice, opt for a third-floor deluxe room and enjoy the picturesque views.

Bill & Co Mykonos, Mykonos, Greece

Fine Hotels & Resorts

Each of the suites has a private terrace with views of the Aegean Sea and the white-washed ancient city. But if you can, splurge on the Bill & Co Suite, in which the minimalist design pairs elegantly with the infinity pool, its edge seemingly melting into the sea.

Nihi Sumba Island

TENGGARA, INDONESIA
FINE HOTELS & RESORTS

These 28 villas are folded seamlessly into 175 pristine hectares of tropical forest and rice terraces. Fronted by a one-mile stretch of protected beachfront, a rare find on Indonesia's Sumba Island, this is just a 50-minute flight from the crowds of busy Bali. Surfing, SUPing, diving, and horseback riding on the beach are the big draws, but adventure sports and visits to Stone Age archaeological sites or tribal treks to witness authentic animist rituals are also available. A beachfront omakase-style sushi bar, a windswept clifftop lounge with a wood-fired clay oven, and a jungle spa shrouded in a cool grove of Pandanus trees offering yoga, meditation, and treatments like Sumbanese lulur exfoliations all remind visitors that the long trip here was absolutely worth it.

Desert

The Ritz-Carlton Ras Al Khaimah, Al Wadi Desert

RAS AL KHAIMAH, UNITED ARAB EMIRATES
FINE HOTELS & RESORTS

Beach chic meets Bedouin décor in these deluxe desert villas with infinity pools and canopied tents lit by moody Moorish lanterns. Located in the soft bronze sands of the Emirates' Al Wadi Desert, one hour north of Dubai, there's no shortage of activities for the whole family—like archery, falcon and owl shows, dune bashing, and birdwatching walks. But enjoying the distraction-free quiet of the desert on your own is just as compelling, particularly while stargazing with a date syrup-sweetened martini at the Moon Bar, or snacking on a fatoush salad on the open rooftop (pictured above), which is modeled after an Arabian watchtower.

Culture

Four Seasons Hotel Cairo at Nile Plaza

CAIRO, EGYPT
FINE HOTELS & RESORTS

Cleopatra herself would have envied the privileged position of this high-rise. Situated on Cairo's Corniche, this exceptional location offers views of Zamalek Island, the 12th-century citadel, and the minarets pointing skyward along the Nile, which still bustles with traditional wooden sailing boats, called feluccas, just as it did in ancient times.

Breezy poolside cabanas and a large luxurious spa, featuring Nefertari massage with warm herbal compresses, deepen the luxe offerings at this 365-key, seven-restaurant property, whose relaxing rooms include triple-glazed windows, deep soaking tubs, and contemporary Egyptian artwork.

Safari

Belmond Safaris

MAUN, BOTSWANA
FINE HOTELS & RESORTS

Is hippo watching from an infinity pool on your bucket list? How about a walking safari followed by bush dining with a symphony provided by reed frogs? Maybe you're more of an African-potato-manicure person? Belmond's constellation of three safari camps provide a unique and authentic experience of Botswana that few can match. Eagle Island Camp in the heart of the Okavango Delta, Savute Elephant Lodge in Chobe National Park, and Khwai River Lodge hidden in a leadwood forest overlooking the vast floodplains, all combine the romance of safari—think copper Victorian tubs, netted four-poster beds, night drives, and sundowners—with 21st-century twists you didn't know you craved. Move from one camp to the next on a weeklong visit and experience all three iterations of the classic safari.

Far-Flung

Soneva Fushi

KUNFUNADHOO ISLAND, MALDIVES
FINE HOTELS & RESORTS

This free-spirited, sustainably-minded 61-villa resort on the uninhabited island of Kunfunadhoo coined the phrase “barefoot luxury” when it opened back in 1995 and has been converting tightly-wound urban skeptics into relaxed sunset seekers ever since. Dedicated butlers help you make the most of the property's “no news, no shoes” concept, including at the open-air beachside cinema, in the complimentary ice cream parlor, and during weekly night-market dinners. Even so, with private tubs and showers nestled in the jungle, along with your own saltwater plunge pools, leaving your villa at all might be a tough choice.

Trekking

Oberoi Wildflower Hall

PRADESH, INDIA
FINE HOTELS & RESORTS

With 23 acres of virgin pine and sacred cedar forests located approximately 8,000 feet up in the Indian Himalayas, Wildflower Hall ensures hikers of all levels will find their footing fast. The wood-paneled British colonial resort was once the palace of Lord Kitchener, and still abounds with extravagant extras like paisley-print sofas, canopied beds, and crystal chandeliers. Picnics complete with china, silver, and linen can be arranged in the nearby rolling hills, while at the hotel, massages, yoga sessions, and Ayurvedic treatments at the spa are especially welcome after a day of rugged hiking.

Spa

La Réserve Geneva Hotel, Spa & Villas

BELLEVUE, SWITZERLAND
FINE HOTELS & RESORTS

This 10-acre resort-clinic hybrid is located just five miles from Geneva's train station, and overlooks the French Alps on the opposite shore of Lake Geneva. The entire retreat is steeped in a retro-safari theme courtesy of Parisian interior designer Jacques Garcia — animal print walls and crushed-velvet-topped beds offer a timeless quality that feels both exotic and surreal. But the spas are the primary draw here, with a variety of treatments to choose from including Barbary fig scrubs, Yang seaweed wraps, and La Prairie cellular Swiss Ice Crystal facials. Structured four- and seven-day breaks utilize both holistic and medical science based on the Nescens Better aging program, whose coaches, trainers, nutritionists, and osteopaths are always on hand—while a variety of thermal pools, saunas, fitness equipment, and tennis courts make freestyle wellness just as alluring.

Mountain

Schloss Elmau

KRÜN, GERMANY
FINE HOTELS & RESORTS

An Art Nouveau castle goes postmodern at this meticulously refurbished wellness sanctuary located in a tranquil corner of Bavaria, about an hour south of Munich by car and just a 25-minute shuttle ride to the ski slopes of Garmisch-Partenkirchen, Seefeld, or Zugspitze Glacier (Germany's highest peak). The eclectic rooms feature a cosmopolitan mix of B&B Italia furniture, antiques from China, Persian carpets, Thai silks and Indian linens, with arresting views of the surrounding snow-carpeted Bavarian Alps. Six spacious spas, including three that are family friendly, ensure a recharge station for every stripe of traveler on a health quest—with yoga classes, a massive hammam, numerous wood-burning fireplaces, and infinity pools that provide soothing soaks for tired post-ski limbs.

Beach

The Sandpiper

ST. JAMES, BARBADOS
THE HOTEL COLLECTION

Many Caribbean properties favor white sand beaches over native greenery, but the Sandpiper, true to its shorebird namesake, delivers both. Within walking distance of the cultural sites of Holetown on Barbados' upmarket west coast, the property is surrounded by 7 acres of fragrant gardens of colorful native fauna. Like the gardens, the property's 50 minimalist thatched-roof beach villas—including two Tree Top Suites with wraparound terraces and private plunge pools—evoke a strong sense of Caribbean flair. Enjoy a Sunday barbecue of freshly caught flying fish served over island fruit and heady rum punch, offered beneath palm trees strung with lanterns and accompanied by the sounds of live steel drums. Those seeking beach adventure further afield can charter the resort's 30-foot catamaran.

adventure collide in this elevated itinerary on New Zealand's North Island.*

Fine Hotels &

It's difficult to come to New Zealand and not be mesmerized by its volcanic landscape, dense forests, and unusual flora and fauna. Exploring the 665-mile-long northern island is best done in a rugged SUV equipped for activities and adventure. Begin at the southeastern end of the island at The Farm at Cape Kidnappers, in Hawke's Bay.

This sprawling property, tucked among vineyards and dramatic cliffs overlooking the sea, is renowned for its golf, with each hole on the Tom Doak-designed course overlooking the ocean, and for its therapeutic spa, with treatments that incorporate local ingredients such as Manuka honey.

All of the 23 accommodations incorporate neutral-toned furnishings, complemented by natural linens and rustic wood; room types vary from the romantic Hilltop Suites, with views over the golf course and the Pacific, to the expansive four-bedroom Owner's Cottage secreted within the property's farm.

Settle in for four days to experience the area's activities, both on property and off. Hike, sightsee off-road in an ATV, go birdwatching, herd sheep on the nearby 6,000-acre beef and lamb farm, try your hand at clay-bird shooting, horseback ride through the emerald-carpeted landscape, or relax in the resort's rural setting. Make sure to bring a solid camera with you—the best souvenir might be your photographs of the stunning scenery.

Next, head north about five hours to Auckland for a city stay at the new Cordis property, an urban hotel with wellness in mind. Here, the 411 rooms cater to a range of travelers with standard rooms starting at 300 square feet, junior suites that offer kitchenettes, and grander accommodations boasting up to 1,266 square feet of living space. Modern in design and amenities, the hotel perfectly reflects Auckland culture. Spend three days touring the city's chic, European-inspired restaurants, shopping the local boutiques and art galleries, and visiting the national museums.

Continue your journey north just three and a half hours to The Lodge at Kauri Cliffs, sister property to The Farm at Cape Kidnappers, and the perfect end point for an active Antipodean itinerary. This 6,000-acre boutique property welcomes guests with soothing suites warmed by cozy fireplaces and views of the farm landscape and ocean, as well as a jaw-droppingly beautiful two-bedroom, 4,200-square-foot Owner's Cottage with its own infinity pool and tropical garden.

For a break from adventure, take advantage of the endless space to enjoy some solitude. When you're ready to get moving again, enjoy land-based fishing from the beach (the chef will prepare any fresh catch for dinner), horseback riding, and, of course, golf on the David Harman-designed course overlooking the dramatic cliffs. Spend your final night with an early-evening custom barbecue on the nearby pink-sand beach, where a private chef from the property will create a memorable meal with local grilled seafood or lamb and some of the region's finest wines.

10 days italy

Spend a week and a half exploring some of the Boot's best waterfront destinations

Above:
Hotel Lungarno,
Florence, Italy
Fine Hotels &
Resorts

From the northern lakes to the central rivers and southern coast, Italy has a wealth of waterways that provide the idyllic setting for an extended vacation. Arrive in Milan and have the Mandarin Oriental, Lago di Como (formerly known as CastaDiva Resort & Spa) arrange for a car to shuttle you an hour north to one of Lake Como's most charming and prestigious properties. The property is the perfect base camp for day cruises around the lake on one of the hotel's vintage boats, exploring, lounging, and basking in the pastoral setting. Don't miss its expansive spa, the largest in the region.

After a few days acclimating to the laid-back Italian lifestyle, rent an Italian sports car and head south to Florence. The four-hour drive will seem all too quick behind the wheel of a Ferrari or Maserati, both of which are manufactured in the town of Modena—just two hours outside of Florence. Car enthusiasts might want to make one more stop near Bologna, for a tour of the popular Lamborghini museum, as well as a feast on the region's famed Bolognese.

Head into Florence in time for sunset as you check into the Hotel Lungarno and bask in the gorgeous riverfront views of the Arno. Head to the Picteau Lounge Bar (named by melding the last names of two artists whose works adorn the walls, Picasso and Cocteau) to enjoy the premiere setting overlooking the river and Ponte Vecchio while sipping a cocktail.

Off property, arrange for a private tour of the Uffizi, burn off the gelato by climbing to the top of the Duomo, then come back to rest and recharge in one of the hotel's 65 rooms. A few days traipsing around town will have you ready for a coastal getaway.

Although it's just a four-and-a-half-hour drive to the docks of Naples, a bevy of worthy stops along the way could make for a much longer journey. Make a quick stop in the walled town of San Gimignano to peek at art from the prestigious Galleria Continua before heading back onto the highway to Rome. Stretch your legs around the city with a quick walk from the Trevi

Fountain to the Spanish Steps, where any of the coffee bars around the piazza make for wonderful people watching.

Just two hours more and you're in Naples, the last stop before hopping a boat to Capri. Swap your car for a private boat to shuttle you 45 minutes to the unbelievably stylish island. Steep rocky cliffs make beaches a rarity, but views are in abundance. Enjoy them from the Capri Palace, a sprawling property nestled in a secluded corner of the island.

Spend the days walking the hilly streets, basking in the sun, and dining on some of the finest seafood in the Mediterranean. Save time for must-visits like Amedeo Canfora, which has been making its custom sandals since 1946, and Aurora, one of the island's oldest and best restaurants, perfecting its pizza recipe for more than 100 years.

Back at the property, experience the Capri Beauty Farm by Mytha Spa, home of the renowned Leg School®: a clinic that treats and pampers lower limbs. On your last afternoon, enjoy lunch at Il Riccio, the Michelin-starred restaurant that overlooks the Blue Grotto and echoes the view with a vibrant turquoise palette.

13 days
the american southwest to the california coast

An excursion from the desert to the Pacific in just under two weeks offers something for everyone.

Hiking may not be for everyone, but no one can resist taking in the picturesque Arizona Sonoran Mountains from every vantage point. A great place to start lies just 25 minutes north of Tucson and escape to the Ritz-Carlton, Dove Mountain. The sprawling 6,200-acre community borders a nature reserve and includes 27 holes of Jack Nicklaus Signature golf, more than 50 miles of hiking and biking trails, and countless saguaro cacti, which are native to the region.

Nature extends into the spa as well, with treatments incorporating local healing gemstones, herbal curatives inspired by the practices of Native American healers, and restorative therapies that draw extracts from the desert flora.

The spacious accommodations feature modern Southwest-inspired designs, with the Casita Village rooms ranging from 1,133 to 2,010 square feet. Spend three nights golfing, wandering through nearby Tucson, and working on your uphill stamina with gentle treks through the surrounding mountains.

Next, head straight north to Sedona. Marvel at the red sandstone mountains and their miraculous curves and colors. Formed hundreds of millions of years ago from the shells of sea creatures turned to limestone, the canyon walls are made of layer upon layer of stone. Nothing can capture the raw beauty of the landscape until you're there in person, and it's worth an extended stay of four nights to fully absorb its grandeur.

Check into the nearby L'Auberge de Sedona and immerse yourself in the region's spiritual setting. The Native American land is said to be home to four main vortexes, a crossing of energies believed to have spiritual significance. Allow the guides to tour you through the property, noting the nearby trees that are believed to grow in arcs and bends from the power of the vortices.

Outdoor enthusiasts can go off-roading in a 4x4 and catch aerial views via helicopter or hot air balloon. Of course, the nearby Grand Canyon can be accessed in a variety of ways, perhaps most leisurely via a two-hour train on a day excursion that leads to the South Rim.

On the property, the spa is the best place to explore more unusual treatments, such as the Forest Bathing experience and Sound Healing. The recently renovated lodge offers some of the region's most enticing accommodations, with its light-filled Lodge rooms and expansive cottages that cater to a variety of traveler needs.

Backtrack just a bit and head south two hours to Scottsdale. Known for its countless golf courses and as a refuge for snowbirds, this desert oasis has been drawing a younger crowd of residents in recent years, thanks in part to the new Andaz Scottsdale

Resort & Bungalows. Check in to this vibrant resort that's a 21st-century take on mid-century modern, where concrete, wood, and steel exteriors conceal vibrant interiors filled with spacious lounge spaces (we love the private outdoor gardens).

If you can break away from the splendor of the outdoor pool area and excellent spa, venture into town and have pedicabs transport you to Old Scottsdale's authentic cowboy-inspired dive bars. Pace yourself over two nights, recover, and prepare for the drive west.

It's just eight hours to the West Coast, and the new Rosewood Miramar Beach in Montecito awaits. The 16-acre property had been resting for more than a decade, anticipating a transformation into the area's newest oceanfront destination with six dining venues and 161 guest quarters in the form of cottages and bungalows, all with a modern New England beach aesthetic.

Let your hair blow in the property's ocean breezes and spend some time checking out the antiques and design shops of nearby Montecito and Summerland, including William Laman, Michael Haskell, and the new outpost of Garde.

Before heading out of town, stop at Pierre Lafond and stock up on gourmet car snacks for the ride north along the Pacific Coast Highway. The winding road should take about four hours, but the inevitable stops for pictures of waves breaking against plunging cliffs could easily make it an all-day excursion.

Spend the remaining two nights doing nothing at the uber-romantic Post Ranch Inn, a must-stay resort for even the most seasoned traveler. Just 39 rooms and one residence hover over the dramatic California cliffs in the organic-luxe lodge. With no televisions, no alarm clocks, and no children under 18, the retreat is heaven for those looking for refuge.

Should you choose to leave, explore the region's natural hot springs and local shops and galleries, many of which maintain a strong hippie influence. No place is better to wine and dine than on property, though, where the acclaimed restaurant and wine list are attractions on their own.

La Réserve Paris
Hotel and Spa,
Paris, France

Fine Hotels & Resorts

7 days france

Take a seven-day trip through the South of France, filled with food, wine, and culture, while resting up at the region's storied properties.

Begin your journey at La Réserve Paris Hotel and Spa, Paris. Located in the heart of the 8th Arrondissement, just steps from the Arc de Triomphe and Élysée Palace, this property feels like a private home with 40 rooms ranging from 540 square feet to more than 2,100 square feet, all with oversized bathrooms and dedicated butlers. If the plush beds of Pierre Cardin's former residence don't have you feeling good as new in an instant, some time spent in the subterranean spa, with its 52-foot-long indoor pool, hammam, and treatments from the Swiss Nescens anti-aging science brand, should do the trick.

Any stopover to the City of Lights requires a pilgrimage to the Louvre and the spectacular shops on the Left Bank, but make sure to check out some of the city's newer attractions, like the stunning restaurant Balagan and the boutique hotspot, Septime.

Pick up a rental car on your last day in town and get an early start on the eight-hour drive south. Stop in Lyon to experience the Parc de la Tête d'or—one of country's largest urban parks—and famed street art, before continuing on to Aix-en-Provence, the quintessential French countryside escape, filled with fields of lavender and vineyards primed to produce rosé.

The Hôtel Le Pigonnet has everything you'll need for a seriously divine rest. The 18th-century Provençal manor home, with its manicured gardens, century-old trees, and pristine pool, has been a hotel since 1924 and famously hosted local artist Paul Cézanne as he painted on the grounds. Spend three nights enjoying the exquisite local produce and wines, meandering through the town and bicycling through the countryside.

Finally, head east to Cannes. Forgo the more direct highways and instead drive along the coast, marveling at the historic homes and architectural masterpieces that dot the hillsides—from medieval castles to the iconic futuristic Bubble Palace once owned by Pierre Cardin.
